

The Animal's German Band

*A wondrous sound of revelry
Awoke the zoo one night.*

*The Keeper said "By jingo, they're having another fight!"
But soon they heard the fifes and drums
The noise was great but grand
And everybody cried "Here comes -
The animal's German band".*

*Oh, the elephant played the trumpet - the
Rhinos beat the drum
The kangaroo conducted them
Though he was deaf and dumb.
The crocodile played the clari-o-net
Though he never could learn his scales.
And they sang "God bless the weasel" - and
"Pop goes the Prince of Wales!"*
